

Trusted Contact Person (“TCP”) Authorisation form

If you would like to appoint a TCP to all or some of your loan accounts with us, we will need you and the proposed TCP to fill in this form. It should be posted back to us at:

Pepper Advantage,
PO Box 704,
Shannon,
Co. Clare.

Please be aware that any TCP appointed to your loan account will only be contacted in the following circumstances where:

- We have a concern about possible financial abuse.
- We are concerned about your health or welfare.
- We need up to date contact information for you.
- We need information about the identity and/or contact details of any appointed legal guardian, executor or trustee.
- We have difficulty contacting you.

We can confirm that a TCP cannot act on your behalf to make decisions and we may only discuss the above topics with them.

This authorisation is valid until your loan account has been repaid, or until you tell us that the authorisation has been withdrawn.
